Pinecrest Swings Into Fight Against Prostate Cancer

You can fight prostate cancer with the swing of a club on August 1, 2007 at Pinecrest Golf Course. The Fairfax County Park Authority will hold its inaugural “closest- to-the-pin” contest as “Arnie’s Army Battles Prostate Cancer Fundraiser” gets underway from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Golf legend Arnold Palmer’s philanthropic efforts known as Arnie’s Army, raises money coast-to-coast for the Prostate Cancer Foundation. It has become the world’s largest philanthropic source of support for prostate cancer research since its establishment in 2002. The “closest-to-the-pin” contest asks golfers to donate $20 for a tee shot. The three golfers with the closest shot receive prizes at the end of the event.

Pinecrest Golf Course is located at 6600 Little River Turnpike in Alexandria. Shuttles will take participants to the seventh hole for the contest.

Reservations and tee times are not required. Simply show up with a $20 donation and put your skills to the test. All participants will receive a one-year subscription to Golf Digest, a Lamkin grip, a Logo hat and information on the Prostate Cancer Foundation. For more information contact Pinecrest Golf Course at 703-941-1061.
